applied to the Uvula, washing it off now and then with the emollient Gargle.

Observations.

This is ordered in a Relaxation of the Uvula, to constringe its Fibres, and thereby enable it to resist the Defluxion of Rheum falling thereon. The Method of applying it is with a Uvula Spoon, and to suffer it to lie for a While on the Part affected. Proper Alteratives, such as Pil. de Styrace, Tinct. Sacra, &c. should be used at the same Time, to stay the Fluxion, and carry off the Redundancy of serous Humours.

The Diseases of the BREAST.

The Asthma.

Linctus Expectorans.

℞ Oxymel. Scillitic. Ol. Amygd. Dulc. Syr. Capill. Veneris āā ℥j. Sacchar. alb. q. s. m. f. Linctus sumat Cochlear. j. sæpè.

The Expectorating Linctus.

Take Oxymel of Squills, Oil of Almonds, and Syrup of Maidenhair, of each one Ounce: Loaf Sugar, a sufficient Quantity. Mix and make a Linctus. One Spoonful to be taken often.

Observations.

This is proper in Asthmas, to promote the Expectoration of thick Phlegm sticking in the Bronchia, and exciting a troublesome fatiguing

Cough, as it ſeconds the Efforts of Nature towards its Diſcharge. To prevent too great Irritation from the Oxymel, as well as lubricate the Paſſage of the Larynx, it will be convenient to take a Spoonful of the Linctus Pectoralis, alternately, with this.

Mixtura Aſthmatica.

℞ Gum. Ammoniac. ʒj. ſolve in Aq. Ceraſ. Nigr. ℥viij. Colaturæ ſumat Cochl. ij. urgente Oppreſſione.

The Aſthmatick Mixture.

Take Gum Ammoniac, one Drachm: Diſſolve it in eight Ounces of Black Charry Water. Two Spoonfuls of the ſtrained Liquor to be taken, when the Patient is troubled with Oppreſſion on the Breaſt.

Obſervations.

This is a known good Remedy for Oppreſſion and Difficulty of Breathing, eſpecially when proceeding from a nervous Cauſe.

Mixtura Expectorans.

℞ Oxymel. Scillit. Aq. Cinnam. Hord. āā ℥ij. m. f. Mixtura. Sumat Cochlear. ij. urgente Dyſpnœa.

The Expectorating Mixture.

Take Oxymel of Squills and Barley Cinnamon Water, of each two Ounces. Make a Mixture. Two Spoonfuls to be taken, when troubled with Difficulty of Breathing.

Obſervations.

This will aſſiſt in Dropſies and Cachexies, when attended with an Aſthma, and will take Place, when common Pectorals avail nothing. It is a good Expectorant and Diuretick.

Pilulæ Solutivæ.

℞ Pil. Ruffi ʒſs. f. Pilul. v. ſumend. h. ſ.

Solutive Pills.

Take Pill Ruffi, Half a Drachm. Make five Pills to be taken at going to Reſt.

Obſervations.

Theſe ſhould be repeated once every two, three, or four Nights, as Occaſion may require, to keep the Body ſoluble, which is abſolutely neceſſary in this Diſeaſe.

The Diſeaſes of the HEART.

Guttulæ Cardiacæ.

℞ Spir. Lavend. comp. Sal. Vol. Oleoſ. āā ʒſs. m. ſumat Guttas xxx. in Languoribus è quovis Vehiculo.

The Cardiack Drops.

Take compound Spirit of Lavender and the Oily Spirit of Volatile Salt, of each Half an Ounce. Mix them together. Thirty Drops to be taken, when faint, in any Liquor.

Obſervations.

Theſe are given in Faintings and Swoonings, to accelerate the Motion of the Blood and Spirits. They warm and ſtrengthen the Nerves, and by their Volatile Quality quickly revive the Motion of the Blood.

Gut-

Guttulæ Cephalicæ.

℞ Spir. Sal. Volat. Oleoſ. Tinct. Caſt. Ruſſ. āā ʒſs. m. ſumat Gutt. xx. vel xxx. in Languoribus ex Hauſtu Julepi Cephalici.

The Cephalick Drops.

Take Oily Spirit of Volatile Salt and Tincture of Ruſſia Caſtor, of each Half an Ounce. Mix them together. Twenty or thirty Drops to be taken, when faint, in a Draught of the Cephalick Julep.

Obſervations.

Theſe anſwer much the ſame Intentions of the former, by promoting a freer Secretion of the Animal Spirits, and increaſing the Tonick Motion of the Solids. They are likewiſe uſeful in Hyſterick Fits.

The Diſeaſes of the STOMACH and INTESTINES.

Bolus Anticolicus.

℞ Phylon. Londinenſ. ʒſs. Pulv. è Chel. Cancr. comp. ϑj. Syr. Caryophil. q. ſ. m. f. Bolus Hora Somni ſumendus, & Mane ſequenti ſuperbibat Hauſtum Catharticum ſequentem.

The Anticolick Bolus.

Take London Philonium, Half a Drachm: Compound Powder of Crabs Claws, a Scruple: Syrup of Clove Gilly-flowers, a ſufficient Quantity. Mix and make into a Bolus