Ex Libris

Le Duc DV 1303

Clusius (d. l'Erteux) Carolus.
1526-1609. Made use of the occupation of his war and busy life to travel and publish the narratives of travellers and collectors in distant lands. He studied at several universities, travelled the southern parts of western and central Europe for rare plants, lived at Montpellier in the house of his friend, worked the imperial botanic garden at Vienna, was intimate with Boeckl and Dodonaeus, a correspondent.
